Dear Syracuse University Alumni and Friends:

Discover the intriguing mélange of cultures that flourished in the wake of ancient empires while cruising to the resplendent shores of Italy, Sicily and Malta. This outstanding, custom-designed itinerary showcases the very best of this historic region at the best time of year and affords you the unique opportunity to travel with a small, intimate group while enjoying deluxe accommodations aboard the exclusively chartered M.Y. VARIETY VOYAGER, an authentic small ship that carries only 72 passengers and is able to call on ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

Marvel at Italy’s stunning Amalfi Coast and the colorful seaside town of Sorrento; explore the fascinating hidden treasures of Sicily; stroll Malta’s Roman avenues and Byzantine lanes; and see eight impressive UNESCO World Heritage sites. Gain insight into Roman life of A.D. 79 in the superbly excavated town of Pompeii. Discover Sicily’s storied town of Taormina in the shadow of Mt. Etna, as well as the island’s seldom-visited interior landscapes, including the often overlooked impressive Bronze Age archaeological site of Morgantina, the exquisite fourth-century Villa Romana del Casale in Piazza Armerina and Agrigento’s majestic Valley of the Temples, one of the most memorable sights of the ancient world. Experience the rich history of Malta, the island nation where St. Paul was shipwrecked and that the Order of the Knights of St. John, Caravaggio, Sir Walter Scott and even Queen Elizabeth II once called home.

An onboard study leader will give insightful lectures to enhance your understanding of these ancient cities and islands, medieval ports and scenic landscapes that were once coveted territories of the world’s most powerful empires.

This once-in-a-lifetime voyage is an excellent value and provides a unique and captivating itinerary of several of the most spectacular historical and cultural places in the world. I encourage you to book now while space and Early Booking Savings are available.

Valletta, Malta

Founded in 1566 by the French Grand Master of the Order of the Knights of St. John, Valletta, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is one of the world’s earliest planned cities and today showcases incredible architecture from the 16th century onward, including splendid examples of Baroque, neoclassical and modern styles.

Visit the iconic, 16th-century, Baroque St. John’s Co-Cathedral, an artistic display of masterpieces including Caravaggio’s The Beheading of Saint John the Baptist. Enjoy a walking tour through the colonnaded Lower Barrakka Gardens, offering stunning vistas of Valletta’s Grand Harbor, and the striking Grand Master’s Palace. Enjoy a private tour led by a member of the noble de Piro family through the 16th-century Casa Rocca Piccola, their ancestral home and a historical showcase of Maltese nobility.

Be on deck this afternoon for an unforgettable cruise from the picturesque bay of the magnificent fortified city of Valletta, past the island shores where St. Paul the Apostle was shipwrecked en route to Rome.

Experience the diverse cultural legacy of Italy, Sicily and Malta that began over 7000 years ago and continued to be shaped by their location between Europe and Africa and the seemingly endless roll call of empires who vied for control of their ancient coasts. On Sicily, traces of the Italians, Greeks, Goths, Moors, Normans, Castilians, Turks, Jesuits, Spanish and French are imprinted on the spectacular landscape and etched into ancient architecture, from Grecian temples and mosaic-adorned Roman villas to Norman palaces and medieval churches. Malta has held a strong connection to Italy and Sicily since A.D. 60, when a shipwrecked St. Paul brought Christianity by happenstance to the tiny archipelago. Perhaps none were more influential than the Crusader-era Knights of St. John, who settled on Malta in 1530 and remained for almost 300 years, while artisans, designers and craftsmen came to Malta from Italy, Sicily and Greece to build castles, cathedrals and the extraordinary capital city of Valletta. The mystique and extraordinary beauty of these history-laden lands beckon you today just as they once lured explorers, artists and powerful rulers.

Agrigento, Sicily, Italy

The world of classical antiquity comes alive in Agrigento’s legendary Valle dei Templi (Valley of the Temples), a UNESCO World Heritage site. Here, no fewer than eight Doric Greek shrines dating from the fifth century B.C. dot the landscape, including the Temple of Hera, with its graceful northern colonnade, and the Temple of Concordia, a beautifully preserved Greek monument. See the temples dedicated to Zeus and Heracles and the Sanctuary of the Chthonic Divinities—ancient Greek lords of Earth and the underworld. Visit the Agrigento Archaeological Museum and admire the collection of Greek, Etruscan, Phoenician, Carthaginian and Roman artifacts.

Licata for Syracuse

Tour the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Villa Romana del Casale—a vast fourth-century country estate noted for its intricate Roman mosaics adorning nearly every surface.

Enjoy an exclusively arranged visit to Morgantina, the impressive archaeological site inhabited by prehistoric man as early as the Bronze and Iron Ages. Ten years after World War II, several American universities began an extensive excavation here, revealing the ruins of an impressive Roman theater, a citadel, archaic tombs and an agora (marketplace). Enjoy a visit to the Archaeological Museum of Aidone, housed in a former Capuchin monastery.

Drive through the picturesque Sicilian landscape en route to Syracuse. Extolled for its beauty and grandeur since antiquity, this city reached its zenith of wealth and power under Dionysius the Elder, who established it as a center of philosophy and the arts 350 years after Greek colonists first settled there in 734 B.C. Today, this UNESCO World Heritage site is a virtual open-air museum of well-preserved classical monuments. Tour the historic quarter of Ortygia, the city’s maritime heart, where the sixth-century B.C. Temple of Apollo stands as the finest example of Doric architecture in western Europe.

Agrigento’s well-preserved Temple of Concordia, whose façade is featured in UNESCO’s logo, is one of the world’s most notable examples of ancient Greek architecture.
Visit the magnificent Greek Theater where Aeschylus once spoke to ancient Syracusans. Inside the Baroque cathedral, built on the ruins of a fifth-century B.C. temple to Athena, admire the unique baptismal font, an ancient marble krater (large vase) resting on 13th-century bronze lions.

Taormina
The charming, medieval town of Taormina commands one of the most impressive settings on the island and is the 2400-year-old center of Sicilian culture and commerce. See the imposing, snowcapped Mt. Etna, Europe’s highest volcano and a UNESCO World Heritage site, and enjoy stunning panoramic views of Calabria. Visit the remarkably preserved third-century B.C. Greco-Roman theater, still in use today, located in perhaps one of the finest settings of any ancient Roman settlement on Earth. Admire the ornate, 14th-century Gothic-Catalan Corvaia Palace; the medieval Baroque portal of the Cathedral of St. Nicola; and the Roman Odeon, the “small theater” built in 21 B.C. Stroll along Taormina’s famous Corso Umberto, a bustling pedestrian thoroughfare with distinctive Mediterranean flair.

Stromboli, Aeolian Islands
Be on deck this evening as the ship cruises in view of the most famous of the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Aeolian Islands—Stromboli, the “Lighthouse of the Mediterranean”—home to a volcano that has been mildly active for the past 2000 years.

Island of Capri
Legend has it that along the shores of the dramatic isle of Capri, Homer’s Odysseus resisted the alluring call of the sirens. By small boat, enter the fabled Grotta Azzura, or Blue Grotto, a natural sea cave adorned with classical statues and illuminated by the brilliant blue reflection of underwater sunlight. Sea conditions and weather permitting.

Sorrento
An outpost of the ancient Roman Republic, today Sorrento is one of the most scenic towns in Italy and is the gateway to Mt. Vesuvius and the ancient ruins of Pompeii. This quaint seaside town features dramatic cliffs dotted with brightly hued buildings and abundant lemon and orange groves, making it the limoncello capital of the world.

Amalfi Coast
Italy’s spectacular UNESCO World Heritage-designated Amalfi Coast is legendary for its natural wonders and dramatic cliffs dotted with secluded villages, opulent villas and sun-dappled beaches that epitomize the allure of the Italian Mediterranean seaside. Delight in a panoramic tour of this stunning coastline and enjoy time on your own in the lovely village of Positano—frequented by Picasso, Toscanini and Bernstein, popularized by John Steinbeck and now a favorite resort of international luminaries.

Pompeii
Discovered and excavated 17 centuries after the tephra of Mt. Vesuvius engulfed Pompeii in A.D. 79, the incredibly well-preserved ruins of this ancient Roman city are today a UNESCO World Heritage site providing an intimate look at the daily rituals of Pompeiian life under the reign of Roman Emperor Titus. See the impressive amphitheater, the house of the wealthy Vetti family and the extraordinary Temple of Jupiter.

Rome
This UNESCO World Heritage site, former seat of the Roman Empire, today is the historic heart of Italy. From the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, the remains of ancient Rome continue to astonish modern visitors.

For ages, the island of Stromboli has served as a beacon by day and a lighthouse by night to sailors.
